Christmas Donor/Volunteer Registration 2018

Purchase gifts for individual children (although they come in batches of families) ages birth to 14. Gender, age, toy suggestions and sizes are listed on each Angel. We suggest 2 toys per child. Unless the parent suggested clothing, it is considered a generous addition. Do not wrap.

I would like to adopt _____ # of Angels (children).

My company/family/I would like to volunteer for ____ day(s) at a red kettle location. Individuals and/or groups would be responsible for manning the kettle with a bell ringer (bells provided), soloist or musician (playing Christmas carols) from 10 a.m. – 7 p.m.  Silver Bells!

Preferred location or area of town _____

Sponsor a Red Kettle! Funds raised in the red kettles help support our programs throughout the year. "Sponsored by..." sign is posted at the kettle.

I would be willing to sponsor a kettle for _____ day(s) @ $80/day or $500/season.

Volunteer! The Salvation Army is seeking volunteers for Set-up December 12-14th and Christmas Distribution & Toy Shop at 409 N. Broadway on December 17th and/or December 19th.

I have _____ person(s) who would be interested in volunteering.

Angels/Silver Bells may be available mid-October, dependent on how many applicants apply early.

They are distributed on a first-requested, first-granted basis.

If adopting more than 10 Angels, we will be able to deliver or mail them to you.

Gifts for seniors or disabled may be wrapped, placed in a decorative gift bag, or wrapping paper included in the bag.

Code #s should NOT be placed on the gifts themselves, but on an outer bag.

Each individual's gifts should be placed in a separate bag.

Email completed forms to: Major Dawn Worthy at dawn.worthy@uss.salvationarmy.org or fax to (865) 524-7748.
